

STANDING TOGETHER: A CALL TO END GBV IN SOUTH AFRICA

■ GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE (GBV) IS AN URGENT ISSUE IN SOUTH AFRICA:

GBV affects individuals of all genders and has serious consequences for communities.

■ UNDERSTANDING GBV:

It can take various forms including physical, sexual, emotional and economical abuse.

■ COMMUNITY RESOURCES:

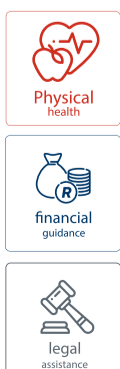

Support is available for survivors of GBV through organizations like Tears Foundation, POWA, Lifeline South Africa, SADAG and TCCs.

■ TAKING ACTION:

Ending GBV requires collective action. Individuals can contribute by educating themselves, supporting survivors and raising awareness.

Mental health

For confidential assistance on mental health matters, contact your EMPLOYEE WELLNESS PROGRAMME
on toll-free 0800 004 770
or SMS your name to 31581